Dear Parents & Guardians:

The Bowling Green Independent School District has confirmed that a substitute teacher, Mr. Leon Lussier has been arrest on child pornography charges unrelated to his employment. Upon receipt of this information, his substitute privileges have been indefinitely suspended. The school district will continue to work with the authorities as the case proceeds and we are providing you as much information as possible, understanding your concerns as parents and guardians of children in our district.

Leon Lussier has worked in the Bowling Green Independent School District as a substitute teacher since February of 2012. He has worked periodically in our district and in all school buildings over the last five school years. Upon employment in BGISD, he completed requirements including professional reference checks and state and federal criminal background checks. Mr. Lussier holds both Bachelor’s and Master’s degrees in education and has been an educator since 1998.

I understand an email is not the best mode to receive information such as this, however, we wanted to communicate with you as quickly as possible. If you have any additional questions or concerns, please feel free to contact me at gary.fields@bgreen.kyschools.us or 270-746-2200.

Sincerely,

Gary Fields
Superintendent

The Bowling Green Independent School District provides equal educational and employment opportunities.
